"Dan has an amazing gift and talent. He never ceases to inspire and teach through his speaking and writing. The raw honesty that he conveys his story and experiences is exceptional but it is more than the story, he blends it all in with the lesson and the growth that it builds. I have also had the honor and pleasure of being a guest on Dan's radio show, his warm style coupled with his insight and caring nature make him an excellent interviewer. I highly recommend his work." "It's a privilege for me to write these words for my friend Dan!

Through his insightful contributions to Life As A Human, I met Dan in 2010 via Skype. While the introduction to each other was through this working relationship, I have since come to call him a good friend. Dan is an open minded, conscientious and warm hearted man. He is always ready to help others, is highly responsive and as honest as the day is long. In a world where integrity is often hard to find, Dan constantly demonstrates it through his actions and the way he handles life's gifts and challenges. I have had the good fortune of being on his radio shows a few times where Dan is an excellent moderator and host. He has a great sense of humor and is one of those people who can brighten up your day if its not going so well. If you ever get the opportunity to work with Dan on something, just do it. You wont be disappointed!" July 2, 2011

Gil Namur, President & CEO, Life As A Human Inc.

"Dan is a superb writer and he has a clarity of thought that I have rarely had the pleasure to view. I had an opportunity to review his wonderful memoir entitled "Freedom's Just Another Word" in my capacity as a book reviewer for the New York Journal of Books.

I've also had a chance to read some of his poetry and short stories which are superb. In addition, I have listened to his radio show where his energy and caring demeanor shines! He is a welcome addition, in my opinion, for any writing or speaking environment." June 30, 2011

Laura Schultz, Book Reviewer, New York Journal of Books

"I highly recommend Dan Hays. For the past couple of years, I've come to respect his desire to create an awareness of perseverance. From his book, he has given us the memories of his experiences in his youth and of his relationship with his father--- both made him strong and led to his success today as a great communicator. Dan reaches out to people with his writing; he encourages and supports so many other writers, like me, who regard him as an inspiration." June 30, 2011
